Beef Management Seminar:

Cattle Handling Practices & Facilities

Saturday, January 19, 2013 from 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 pm.

Lawrence County 4-H Fairgrounds, Bedford, IN

Beef producers have the opportunity to learn about cattle handing facilities and implementing on-farm management practices from some of the nation's top researchers in the field of animal behavior. Speakers during this seminar will cover a wide variety of topics ranging from beef cattle psychology, updated information on cattle handling facilities and how to conduct beef cattle temperament scoring.

Speakers will also be discussing livestock issues currently in the media and the role beef producers can participate in to help explain livestock production through our state and nation.

Registration will begin on Saturday, January 19th at 8 a.m. and the seminar will go from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Early-bird registration before January 8th will be $40 per person. After January 8th the cost will be $50 per person. Veterinarians can receive continuing education credit for no extra cost!

Everyone is welcome to attend a free open house reception with local cattle supply exhibitors and seminar speakers on Friday, January 18th from 5 to 8 p.m. regardless if you register for the seminar

*All meals and snacks will be provided to attendees. Participants will also receive a resource booklet with seminar documents and supportive literature to be used as a take-home reference manual.

Directions to Lawrence County Fairgrounds:
